

Waterskiing on ice. What could be better?

FANCY A GO?

Held in the Ice Rosa Ring in Riva Valdobbia in the Italian Alps, Snow Quake provides one of the few opportunities anywhere in the world to race on ice that isn't on a frozen lake. The Ice Rosa Ring has ups and downs and technical corners. Anyone can enter. Visit www.dirtquake.co.uk for more info on future events MCN

That's Ross Sharp on the outside. You could do it too...

Riders including Giovanni Bussei (ex BSB and WSB racer) and Tom Cleance were battling all day

A pair of gallic Vespa riders prepare for battle

It's not every event that has an official blanket

THE BIKES

Suzuki GSX400T by Bandisca warming up for action

Possibly the most chilled Ducati Scrambler around

Check out the studded rubber on that Vespa

Classic Puch Frigerio boasts beefed-up forks

BSA Gold Star... surely the most valuable bike there

You won't find Pantahs like this at a local Ducati meet